

was very despondent, as ~~she~~ his so-called partner ~~Frank~~ Vlaho double-crossed him (details never known) & Papau lost the license.

In ~~Sept~~ That summer or fall of 1939 Papau opened a cigar store ^{lunch} in the ~~lunch~~ Bldg & it had several pin-ball machines. ~~Angelo~~ in the meantime from 1932 on, went in the pin-ball & slot machine business, known as the Rex ~~coin~~ Amusement & bought the 700 block of S. Salina from Mr. Dillon. He was very successful & had people ~~servicing~~ servicing the machines & going 50-50 with the merchants who had the machines. He owned them & added new ones. Also went into juke boxes.

About 1942, Papau opened a pool hall ^{at} 1214 W. Iron, with Jerry Lewades. ^{Sold the} ~~also~~ ^{cigar store} in 1943 or 1944 ~~he~~ bought a building at the 100 block of James St (next to the Lyr Savings) & opened the James St. Lunch. Remember Mr. Panarites working there.

In 1944 met Andrew Power. Papau ~~was~~ In 1944 In 1944 (?) Papau bought Onida Lake with Uncle A, Jerry & Sam Kay. In 1944 met Andrew B, In 1946 Bart married Tom a, Papau got sick, sold James St.